

2015 Annual General Meeting

Elections to the Supervisory Board

Curriculum Vitae

Christiana Riley (born 1978)

Deutsche Bank AG
Head of Corporate Strategy

Christiana Riley joined Group Strategy (AfK) in September 2006 and she is currently Deutsche Bank's Head of Corporate Strategy, a member of the Group Strategy (AfK) Management Committee.

In her role, she is responsible for supporting senior management (Deutsche Bank's Board and Group Executive Committee) in formulating the bank's strategy and articulating it to internal and external stakeholders in terms of group, divisional, regional and client priorities.

Prior to joining DB, Christiana worked at McKinsey & Company, where she served clients in the public and financial services sectors in Europe and the Middle East.

Christiana began her career at the US M&A boutique Greenhill & Co. where she held roles in New York and Frankfurt, Germany.

Christiana graduated cum laude from Princeton University, Princeton, NJ, USA with a Bachelor of Arts in Romance Languages and Literature. She holds an MBA from the London Business School, London, UK.

Christiana is a US national and speaks proficient French and Italian, in addition to fluent German. She has two children ages 3 and 5 and is currently based in Bad Homburg, Germany.

---